

Art Contest for 2014 Environmental Calendar

DEADLINE: Entries must be postmarked no later than April 12, 2013

Show us you care...
Draw your own conclusions about the environment.

Recycling, composting, and keeping litter in its place are among the many ways we keep Nebraska clean. Put your talents to good use by submitting a drawing for the 2014 "Nebraska: Don't Waste It!" calendar. The calendar, sponsored by the Nebraska Department of Environmental Quality, will feature the artwork of students from grades K-12. We're looking for drawings that demonstrate the importance of good environmental practices and tips on reducing waste, recycling, and protecting Nebraska's air, land, and water. The front cover and each month of the calendar will feature one of the 13 winning environmental posters.

If your artwork is chosen for the calendar, you will:

- Have your artwork, name and school's name featured on a page of the calendar;
- Be invited to an awards presentation at the State Capitol in Lincoln;
- Receive copies of the calendar to share with family and friends; and
- Help educate others about how to protect our environment.

All Nebraska students in grades K-12 are eligible to submit their artwork. One piece of student art will be featured each month. The grand prize winner's work will be featured on the cover.
